

I do not want the "do not call" law weakened for New Jersey. I value my free time and don't want to be interrupted by unsolicited calls from individuals trying to sell me something or provide me a service. If I want an item or a service, I will research what I want, and I will contact the company, not visa versa.